

Report on Orientation programme on Soft Skills "Public Speaking Skills for Beginners"

An Orientation programme on Soft Skills "Public Speaking Skills for Beginners" was organized by the skill development cell, S. B. Deorah College on 31/08/2022. The orientation programme was conducted by Dr. Pallabi Baruah where she introduced specific concepts that are integral to effective public speaking and presentation. By learning appropriate preparation techniques, students learnt to overcome their apprehensions towards speaking in public and thereby become more confident and effective speakers. A sum of 30 students' participants were present in the programme.

