Session 2022-23

The department of history arranged educational tour to Tezpur on 04.03.2023. Tezpur, known as cultural capital of Assam under the guidance of Md.Magrul sir, HoD of history department, Dr.Anjali Patowary, L.Changsan and Miss Devahuti.

Poki: The Jyoti Bharati Museum, also known as ancestral home of Ropkonwar Jyoti Prasad Agarwala, the doyen of Assamese culture. The house was built in 1874 by grandfather of Jyoti Prasad Agarwala. The architecture of Poki is a subtle blend of Rajasthani and Ahom style. It is currently under the centre of cultural excellence under the Directorate of Cultural Affairs, Assam.

Kanaklata Udyan: This Park is dedicated on the brave name Kanaklata Baruah died in British bullets at Gohpur P.S under Sonitpur in 1942. It is one of the beautiful natural parks built on the pick of Dhenukhana and Ouguri hills located in the western part of the town. The British named this hill as 'Tiger Hill'.

Chitrallekha Udyan: The Park was first established in the memory of British Deputy Commissioner Captain HWG Cole in 1909 that died at Tezpur. Later the park was renovated by Mr. Bhanu, DC with the help of Tezpur Environment Society in 1996. It also a very good tourist park at Sonitpur district.

Rock Inscription of ancient Tezpur: The rock inscription of Tezpur is one of important historical place. The historian KL Baruah opined that the rock inscriptions of Harjara Verma porters to be an ordinance regulating the playing of boats on the Brahmaputra within certain boundaries. Another three number of rock inscriptions are at Somdhara Ghar around 8 KM east of the Tezpur town near Jiabharali river and Brahmaputra on Samodhara and Bhomoraguri Hill of Ahom king Pratap Singha.

Da-Parbotia: It is located at 10 KM away from Tezpur. This shrine is famous for the sculpture of Goddess Ganga and Jamuna. The stone to this shrine gate was built in 4th century in Gupta period. The place is beautifully decorated by Architecture department of India.
