Editorial

As we are advancing towards a new year filled with possibilities, we are happy to present the second edition of 'Historia', the newsletter of the Department of History of S.B.Deorah College. This edition informs a comprehensive details about the events undertaken and the fruitful results achieved by the department during this academic session. This session, our department hosted several academic and cultural activities, providing numerous opportunities to the students for their learning and growth. It is noteworthy that our students and the faculty members actively participated in all the activities in and outside the campus.

I am pleased to extend my heartfelt gratitude to our principal for his support and guidance in bringing out this newsletter. I am also very much thankful to my departmental colleagues and the students for their efforts in bringing out this newsletter to light.
